

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 12, 1996

SUBJECT: HB 2353 - SB 2406

This bill, if enacted, will provide that the state will not be subject to civil liability arising from the action of an offender during any period of time the offender is not physically in the custody of, or under direct control of, a jailer, correctional officer or other law enforcement officer.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be a cost avoidance for state government. The amount of such cost avoidance cannot be determined but is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director